

Author name: M. Maher

Date of submission: Thursday, 3 May 2018

Submission: It is my belief that cutting the solar feed in tariff will only serve to reduce the number of householders investing in rooftop solar. Essentially those of us who have invested in rooftop solar are providing support to the grid albeit in a small capacity. We deserve a reasonable tariff paid to us for supporting the grid especially as people like me return more capacity to the grid than we use except in exceptional weather conditions.