

Author name: M. McCosker

Date of submission: Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Submission: "Dear Sir,

Tax paying Australians who've invested their own income into rooftop solar, which benefits all Australians on the grid as well as addressing environmental concerns, should not be subsidising fossil power generation.

From even a basic economic / free market perspective this is deeply disingenuous and a move in bad faith with those who are helping all of us.

Please reconsider this drop in the solar feed in rate.

Kind regards
Mat McCosker"