

Author name: P. Hill

Date of submission: Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Submission: We as electricity consumers deserve fairness. We have done the right thing and put our money up to help save the planet, not to help the bottom line of the big energy suppliers. They need to move with the times and adjust their business plan accordingly. We deserve a fair price for our solar power. We are getting a pittance currently, it needs to go up not down