

Author name: S. Bruggisser

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: I think the time has come that solar enthusiasts are not punished anymore in their believe. They should be reimbursed the same rate as coal produced power. The whole world seems to start laughing about the Australian power generation. After all we are all grown ups and understand what the warming of our planet will cause. We have to act now NOW if we want to be respected by our next generation !!!