

Author name: S. Hirst

Date of submission: Friday, 4 May 2018

Submission: "The existing feed in price for electricity is in urgent need of increase so the fact that it is being considered for reduction it is unbelievably dumb.

The existing electricity grid would not have coped with the increased demand without solar energy input from rooftops. I expect and am entitled to receive a fair price for my solar generated input."