

Author name: S. Hosking

Date of submission: Friday, 4 May 2018

Submission: "Why, in a country enjoying so much sunshine, is it that the 'generating' of solar power by householders is being so actively discouraged? It seems that the coal industry and, lately, the uranium lobby, exert undue influence on the decision makers.

Householders with rooftop solar panels should be encouraged and supported, not discouraged and penalised financially."