

Author name: S. Waterman

Date of submission: Wednesday, 9 May 2018

Submission: We purchased solar to help create a greener world and also felt we were assisting the govt at the same time. It was a huge outlay and the feed in tariff is should represent the true value of solar and recognise the environmental and health benefits. It is not fair to punish solar owners who are helping to bring down the prices of electricity for all NSW energy users. (I do not wish my name to be published thank you.)