

Author name: W. Lake

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: "To whom it may concern,

I am desperately trying to do my bit for the long term future of this country, hence me putting my money into solar power to reduce the impact on the environment.

I think the pittance we are getting for our investment needs to be increased, not decreased. It's getting harder each day to believe that our government and it's decisions are out to make this country better."