

Author name: W. Richmond

Date of submission: Wednesday, 9 May 2018

Submission: Governments should be encouraging households to do their bit for climate change by installing solar panels . . . not punishing them! At the very least power companies should pay the same for the power that we produce as they charge for power that we consume from them!