

SUBMISSION TO IPART REVIEW
SOLAR FEED-IN TARIFFS 2017/18

Friday, 19 May 2017
11:55:35 AM

Power produced by privately owned solar and wind arrays should be purchased at a price no less than the cost of power produced by power plants owned by AGL and others. As without adequate recompense it may become a a better proposition to disconnect and use private power to charge privately owned batteries and not put any power into the grid. Then a new power stations will need to be built at the cost of all those connected to the grid. .

William J Walker

Postcode: 2536