

Author name: A. PARRY

Date of submission: Sunday, 7 February 2016

Submission: Proposals to increase Opal Card Fares for Seniors to a possible $9.00 per day appear to be grossly unfair. Self Funded Retirees manage on a Fixed Income and daily we see prices leaping upward and our income still remains the same. Public Transport should be a service for all the community and not self funding. In many places around the world, it is free to the user funded by local taxes. Worthy of consideration.