

Author name: A. Royal

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: I humbly request that pensioners be spared from the increase to fares. Those of us on the pension find it hard enough now to get around and to increase the fares would make it impossible for some of us to go anywhere. Pensioners have worked for many decades and now just want a little to help us in our lives.