

Author name: A. Wolfers

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: Raising the price of the gold Opal card will disadvantage people outside of Sydney more than Sydney residents. I live in the Illawarra. The frequency of rail transport to Sydney is poor, and not all services and goods are available here. Sometimes it is necessary to hop onto a train to see a medical specialist or other service provider not represented down here, or to buy items not available here. Don't disadvantage us further, please.