

Author name: a. parker

Date of submission: Monday, 8 October 2012

Submission:

The key issue with water is that Hunter Water is constantly increasing the fixed charges and reducing the use proportion of the bill. If you conserve water, install tanks and install efficiency measures your bill keeps going up. It has now got to the point where there is little financial benefit in bothering to save water.