

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 11 January 2016

Submission: Absolutely appalling!!

Raising the Senior's cap to $9.00 from $2.50 means those without the Pension Card (which we are about to lose) would pay the regular fare for most journeys. We are about to lose the pension, all the benefits associated with it, and now even the Senior's discount on public transport. That's hitting a single group pretty hard - don't you think?