

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 11 January 2016

Submission: It is ridiculous to say 60% of people will pay less when most people will use 10 trips (to and from from work) and you are proposing they pay for 10 instead of the current 8. So what if people using the system are subsidising frequent users? That is the whole point - to encourage public transport use not make it more expensive for everyone which is what your proposal does. Please don't waste taxpayers money any more.