

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 1 February 2016

Submission: This makes no sense and will be counterproductive to incentives to encourage people to use public transport and minimise congestion on our roads. We should be encouraging people, particularly for the mental health of the elderly, to get out and about and use the amenities of Sydney.