

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 1 February 2016

Submission: Seniors make up a large percentage of volunteers in our community. I am on two committees at a local public hospital. I am also a carer for an adult daughter with a disability and need to travel to doctors appointments and services. Introducing a higher fare would definitely limit my community involvement and ability to care for my daughter.