

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 21 December 2015

Submission: Congratulations IPART. Such a pity you saw fit to increase pensioner prices by only 40%. I'm sure you could have ripped more from our elderly!

What an indictment of both those in charge of our rather pathetic public transport system and in particular, those in outrageously privileged positions, completely out of touch with the realities of subsisting on the support provided by our society.

I am embarrassed and appalled.