

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 22 January 2016

Submission: The draft for Opal card fare review is absolutely affecting people who choose to use the public transport. With such a high fare raise, more people will consider driving to work. This will not only put financial pressure on families but also bring our traffic system backwards and harm the environment. Family Sunday is no longer a family fun day. I feel sad and angry about this fare review.