

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 22 January 2016

Submission: Needs disclosure of public transport operational data to support the review of the fare.

The new plan is quite arbitrary and the only purpose is to raise the price around 30 percent. The current fare system is already very expensive and it's only roughly a year since last adjustment. Thus we need more detailed information to support the raise. The transport need to try reducing their cost first instead of raising the fare by a stunning ratio.