

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 23 December 2015

Submission: The concession for seniors with the opal gold card should be left alone.

Many self funded retired people between the ages of 60 to 65 retired based on certain calculations and benefits to those aged over 60 years.

It is unfair to change the basic eligibility and benefits of the gold opal card to those aged over 60.

Why are the aged continually targeted after working all their life?

Thank you.