I am now paying more for my weekly ticket, than the yearly that expired yesterday (from Narwee to city).. I barely use the train other than work to and from the city, 5 days a week, peak time only..

it annoys me that people can make short trips instead of 5 of the same to save the weekly journey and rip off the system and its a nuisance to tag on and off especially in areas where there are no gates because I have to remind myself to use them.

And I would like to pick a day to deposit money in my account in line with my pay not in line with the balance available on my card.

and I would like receipts daily, so that I know its accepted my tick on, and tick off.
