

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 25 February 2013

Submission: IPART is the reason taxi fares are so high in NSW. When the owners realise that their investment in taxi plates will no longer be part of the calculation of taxi fares the price of plates will fall to a reasonable level. After many government enquires into this basic transport service the only way to stop the increase in fares is to make it clear to the taxi plate owners that their investment will no longer be part of the calculation of fares.