Submission: I am putting in a submission about the fare rises for the seniors opal card.

So self funded constitutes are going to be slogged a lot more than the others. Why do governments feel that they can always use the older groups, to manage their budgets.

I find it as being discriminating against selffunded retirees, who don't have a huge disposable incomes. What a huge slog from $2.50 up to $9.00 a day.

I for one won't be using public transport as much if these rises go ahead. (Isn't the whole idea to get people to use public transport). YES.

Yours sincerely
