

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 2 February 2016

Submission: NSW Transport are advertising discounted fares and savings. This suggest that there is enough value in their pricing for the Opal Card. It does not make sense that they should hike prices when they are giving discounts and saving on the other hand, particular senior Opal card pricing. As is price hike is going to be extremely unfair to some of sector of the community already, do we have to target senior citizens? REALLY? #Humanity