

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 2 February 2016

Submission: Public Transport fares should not be calculated to reimburse costs. Public Transport is paid for by taxation and must be integrated into the overall planning for the state.

Fares should encourage the public to use and to get cars off the roads then we wouldnt need such expensive highways and their ongoing costs in terms of pollution and maintenance.

The report is not balanced and does not take into consideration more extensive matters concerning the health of the city.