

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 3 February 2016

Submission: My wife and I object strongly to any increase in Seniors fares, because: it compromises our ability to travel; it will result in people either using cars (creating jams) or not going out; public transport exists to provide a service - not a profit centre; our decreasing ability to earn makes such price rises doubly unfair; it will be bad for businesses - especially those in the CBD.