

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 3 February 2016

Submission: I think that the proposed price hike for Senior's transport in Sydney and surrounding areas is outrageous. A small increase might be justifiable. This is an enormous increase.

In London, Seniors can travel on the buses for free. Many self funded retirees live on a small income and these huge increases will substantially affect their quality of life.

Seniors need more respect as they have contributed to the financial well being of this country. Is this your thank you to them?