

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 3 February 2016

Submission: This insidious creeping increase will have more effect than diminishing people's mobility. Most pensioners are far from wealthy and have to eke out their meagre incomes with great care. Many give their time to volunteer activity requiring travel. Estimates have been made that volunteering contributes the equivalent of hundreds of millions of dollars annually to the community. This proposal will slowly reduce an important community activity and community benefit.