

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: Raising daily max fare to $9 for self funded retirees is excessive. This major increase is beyond cost of living index and will disadvantage those seniors with limited means. Seniors generally do not travel at peak times and so utilised public transport infrastructure. Reduced public transport fees encourage people not to drive, resulting in less congestion, and reduces travel time for commercial operators, and improves their business profitability.