

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: I am thoroughly appalled at the proposal to increase the daily cap for gold opal card holders from $2.50 to $9.00 for those retirees who do not hold a pensioner or war service card. This consideration is discriminatory and shows a total disregard for those who have carefully planned and saved to live independently in their later years. This proposal could have far reaching effects for the government and should be carefully considered before implementation.