

Author name: C. Hutcheson

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: I have reviewed the IPART report on fares for public transport and advise that I support the recommendations. I use public transport for personal and business travel and am very appreciative of the investment in public transport that has occurred in recent years. The planned Sydney Metro is a bonus that we should also appreciate. It is my view that the revised fare structure is both fair and reasonable.