

Author name: C. Bull

Date of submission: Saturday, 1 March 2014

Submission: I object to further gas price increases. It has been steadily rising in recent years. I cannot continually afford these price increases as I am on a pension. Further price increases are going to cause me to restrict my winter gas use and therefore my warmth. It is outrageous that in a country like ours with vast gas supplies we have to pay such high prices.