

Author name: D. Arnold

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: Whilst some increase in the gold opal card is justifiable, the proposal appears to hit self funded retirees heavily. This concession is one of the few available after working and saving for retirement. We typically use public transport not only for pleasure but for visiting hospitals, other people who cannot leave their homes, child care and other voluntary work. This means the community good we do actually costs us and the proposal increases our costs considerably.