

Author name: D. Levy

Date of submission: Monday, 1 February 2016

Submission: I am a 70 year old widow/self funded retiree on a limited income who uses public transport as a 'clean/green' choice as much as possible. I have been considering getting rid of my small car but increased fares would affect this decision significantly. I am sure you are aware that seniors in London have FREE transport and this makes a significant contribution to reducing traffic.