

Author name: D. Zhang

Date of submission: Monday, 25 January 2016

Submission: The price increase will only discourage people using public transport and put more cars on the road.

Public transport should not be profit driven. Incurring losses is not an excuse for price increase.

This is a robbery. End of story.