

Author name: G. Webster

Date of submission: Friday, 15 January 2016

Submission: I'm concerned at the daily cap for seniors is to be set at $9. I frequently use the Manly ferry and then catch a train to get me out of the house for the day. If I do this twice a week it would cost me $18. I think this is excessive.

I hope IPART took into consideration the social and health benefits of older people getting out of their homes and being active. Making this more difficult is not good social policy.

Gil Webster