Submission: My document translation as I was told will be at around $4k, cross checked with NAATI, interpreter and they could do the same docs for around $850. It seems that clients of NSW T&G get significant overcharge in this department.

Furthermore there is some unwanted title searches and etc... performed all without my consent, copies are delivered to the legal reps. of people against which I do have matters at the courts. Then my account balance runs on empty due to this negligence, so there is late payments of my bills to insurance and other services. I hope to be able to avoid such miss quoting in the future.
