

Author name: I. Edwards

Date of submission: Monday, 1 February 2016

Submission: As a pensioner I value my Opal card as It minimises the cost of using public transport. It also encourages people to leave their cars at home and travel by public transport. The less they have to pay for buses , trains and ferries the more likely they are to use them and hence help to cut down the harmful greenhouse emissions that exacerbate the problem of global warming.