

Author name: I. Gosper

Date of submission: Monday, May 25, 2015

Submission: The social aspect of merging small area, but large population city councils with large area, but small population rural and village councils, needs to be accounted for in the methodology criteria. The community expectations of joining vastly different servicing councils together should be accounted for and should be a stand alone methodology dot point. Scale and Capacity needs further definition as it means different things to different people and different things to different councils.