

Author name: I. Mann

Date of submission: Sunday, 22 April 2012

Submission:

Could IPART allow the suppliers to read the meter once a year, and charge the customer monthly even amounts based on the previous years usage. Upon the annual meter reading the account could be reconciled, with either a credit to the customer or a slightly higher one off payment.

This would save 3 paper invoices, and save the cost of three meter readings.