

Author name: J. Forge

Date of submission: Monday, 1 February 2016

Submission: I am appalled by this outrageous suggestion. The opal gold card is the only benefit my wife and I have as self-funded retirees. It will further erode our savings and curtail our travel. A trip into the city will now cost us an extra $13, which translates into morning coffee and muffins now being an option for us. How mean is this proposal!