

Author name: K. Lucas

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: The changes suggested to the fare structure is unfair.

Weekly users will pay more upto 20 percent more (removing the free trips after 8 ie for most people who make ten trips per week in full time employment).

So what if fares come down by about ten percent for irregular users. It is deceitful and unfair to make these changes.

NSW needs to encourage regular usage of transport. Lift the level of service not the level of fares!!!