Submission: I live in the Hills, and travel into the city on the bus.

Before OPAL I used the MyBus Zone3 ticket, which was $37.60. This was ideal for me, as I only worked a few days in the city, and this ticket suited my lower use of public transport.

I switched to OPAL this year as I am now working 5 days in the city. On the current OPAL scheme, my bus costs are now $36.00 per week. Under the new proposal I will have to pay $4.50 per trip * 10, which means my cost is now $45 per week, an increase of 25%. How is this Fair for those living in the Hills districts?
