

Author name: L. Amos

Date of submission: Tuesday, 12 January 2016

Submission: My husband and myself have retired and now use the public transport system on a regular basis. We are self funded retirees and should we lose our Opal Card it would certainly restrict our outdoor activities. Is this fair? We have sacrificed all our lives so we didn't have to become pensioners - now you are going to Means Test the Opal Card - UNFAIR. Why isn't the Government supporting self funded retirees, not penalising them???