

Author name: L. McLeod

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: These proposed changes are grossly unfair and could put public transport out of the reach of many people. As well as causing financial hardship, it will make public transport more expensive is likely to result in more motor cars on the road.