

Author name: M. Wellsmore

Date of submission: Sunday, 17 April 2016

Submission: To whom it might concert:

We are a young couple and having to pay these extra expenses every year on our water bill puts a big burden on us. We think these expenses should be reviewed and should be charge in a different way as every house is different in size and number of people that lives in it. It seems that we (all residents) are just paying top dollar no matter the different incomes or hurdles each household has.

Your sincerely