

Author name: M. Yang

Date of submission: Wednesday, 21 May 2014

Submission: Hi There,

I am against to the deregulations of the Gas prices this coming July. This is never ending high increases in the utilities. Australia is the most country to live in the world. I compare the utilities in America the are way to low. For example Sydney Water I used to pay only $110 for quarter now I am paying more than triple of the price. Where are this money going to?