Submission: Dear IPART,

I write as a taxi owner/driver of over 40 years.

Once again you want us to put pen to paper to provide submissions to help you make your decision.

I write to inform you that it is absolutely pointless of us taking the time to research and write informative submissions based on fact, actual experience, observations and opinion. At best, from my years of experience writing submissions to you, you may pay a small amount of 'lip service' but you will not be influenced from your world of academia and its irrational direction. Like most situations, taking submissions is only to make the masses feel good whilst you pretty much already have your mind made up.

Yours faithfully,
Paul Fletcher
